

COVID-19 Response

Review the Grant Program information at www.ggbcf.org/emergencyresponsefund and click the Apply Now button at the bottom of the page.

- If you are new to using the online application, you will need to register and wait for approval.
- If you are already registered, login and continue to the grant portal.

If you have questions, please contact a member of our community engagement team.

- Amber Paluch – amberpaluch@ggbcf.org
- Ashley Bethke – ashleybethke@ggbcf.org
- Rashad Cobb – rashadcobb@ggbcf.org

When applying online, you will be asked to provide the following information:

Program Name: Name of your application

Organization Information

- Lead Organization's Legal Name
- Federal EIN
- Address
- Website
- Phone Number
- Mission Statement (750 character limit)
- Has your governing board approved a policy that states the organization does not discriminate? If not, explain why not.

Contact information

Primary Contact

- Name
- Title
- Email
- Phone number

Project Overview

- Brief summary of how your organization has responded to the public health crisis in serving the community (2,500 character limit)
- Amount requested
- Statement of Need and Opportunity: Describe the issue this request will address. Whenever possible, substantiate with data. (2,500 character limit)

Project Funding

- How will the dollars will be used to address the issue? (1,000 character limit)

Optional Documents:

Other Documents specific to the grant request